

Stuart Carmichael BVMS MVM DSAO MRCVS
Recognised Specialist in Small Animal Surgery

Stuart Carmichael is a graduate of the University of Glasgow in 1978; he worked within the Surgery Faculty as a lecturer in surgery and orthopaedic surgery before moving to private referral practice in London in 1990. In 1991 Stuart was appointed as Director of the Queen Mother Hospital for Animals at the Royal Veterinary College in London. In 1996 he returned to the University of Glasgow as Director of the Small Animal Hospital and Senior Lecturer in Orthopaedics. He held a personal chair as Professor of Veterinary Clinical Studies at the University of Glasgow Veterinary School from 1999 to 2009 and was Director of Corporate Affairs from 2005-2006 and Associate Dean for Clinical Studies from 2006 to 2009. Stuart is a RCVS Diplomate in Orthopaedics and Recognised Specialist in Small Animal Surgery. He is a past Chairman of the British Veterinary Orthopaedic Society. In 1996 he was awarded the BSAVA Simon Award for contributions to veterinary surgery. He is currently Vets Now National Hospitals Director.

